

Monkey Madness

Ten mischievous monkeys swinging on a vine,
One fell off and then there were nine.

Nine mysterious monkeys scouted for some bait,
One got lost and then there were eight.

Eight marvellous monkeys thinking about heaven,
One went to church and then there were seven.

Seven muddled monkeys getting in a mix,
One fell in a puddle and then there were six.

Six musical monkeys having a jive,
One joined a band and then there were five.

Five meddling monkeys messing with the door,
One was locked in and then there were four.

Four majestic monkeys sitting proud on a tree,
One stung by a bee and then there were three.

Three moronic monkeys thinking they are baboons,
One got sent to an asylum and then there were two.

Two muscular monkeys going for a run,
One tripped and fell and then there was one.

One moody monkey having no fun,
Went searching for his friends and then there were none.
